

Handwritten signature

STAT

JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 3 April 1964

1. [Redacted] Delivered to Mr. J. G. Sourwine a translation of the Swedish magazine article on the [Redacted] case. The article appeared in the 17 March 1964 issue of [Redacted]

STAT

STAT

STAT

STAT

2. [Redacted] Called Jean Allen, Secretary to Senator James Eastland. Miss Allen advised that the Senator would be able to meet with Mr. Kirkpatrick and Mr. Warner at 10:30, Thursday, April 9.

3. [Redacted] Miss Cleary, in the office of Senator Eugene J. McCarthy, called and advised that she is back in the office. I told her I would try to get by during the afternoon. Miss Cleary had requested an unclassified paper on the Cuban economy which is being provided without attribution to the Agency.

STAT

4. [Redacted] Mr. Shacklette in the office of Congressman Wright Patman (D., Tex.) telephoned asking us to arrange a personnel interview for one [Redacted] who apparently is well known to Mrs. L. B. Johnson. Arrangements were made for an interview tomorrow at [Redacted], at 10:30 a.m.

STAT

STAT

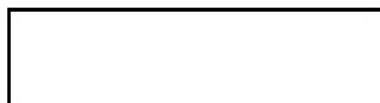

STAT

5. [Redacted] John Newhouse on the staff of Senate Foreign Relations called stating Senator Fulbright had asked for him to procure whatever we had on Khrushchev's speeches during his visit in Budapest. He desired verbatim text if possible. I said we would be happy to look into this and be in touch.

STAT

6. [Redacted] Worked with Russ Blandford, House Armed Services Committee staff, preparing lists of points for use by Chairman Vinson and Representative Arende at the Rules Committee hearing today on resolutions for a joint committee.

STAT

STAT